

Feed Your Brain Tickets

Dear Students and Parents,

Nevada Reading Week is almost here! We are excited about this upcoming event and hope you will enjoy the fun.

Below are tickets that your child may return to his/her teacher to be entered into daily school drawings. The more activities your child completes, the more tickets he/she can turn in, and the more chances he/she has to win a prize. The tickets do not need to be completed in the order presented. Your child may choose which day he/she completes each activity. Please be aware that these activities are voluntary, and just for fun!

Tickets may be turned in Tuesday, February 26, 2018, through Friday, March 2, 2018.

Read to a Family Member
